

Self-Inventory Questions

“Practice these things; be committed to them, so that your progress may be evident to all. Pay close attention to your life and your teaching; persevere in these things, for in doing this you will save both yourself and your hearers.” 1 Timothy 4:15-16 (CSB)

My Connection to God

1. How much time each day am I spending in prayer and the study God’s word?
2. How does the frequency of my attendance in Sunday worship services and Bible class reflect that worship and spiritual growth are priorities?
3. Are there “compartments” of my life that are “off limits” to God? If so, what areas? What do you need to do to correct this problem?
4. Do my thoughts, actions, and habits show that I love God with all of my heart, mind, soul, and strength?

My Connection to the Church

1. Who are the Christians in my life with whom I can share my personal struggles with and who can hold me accountable?
2. What fellowship do I have with other members of the body away from the church building?
3. Who are the Christians that I need to forgive or ask for their forgiveness?
4. How am I praying for and lovingly serving my brothers and sisters in Christ?

My Connection to the World

1. Am I praying for and taking advantage of opportunities to share the Gospel with those who are lost?
2. How am I building healthy relationships with non-Christians?
3. Am I prepared to defend the Christian faith?
4. How am I demonstrating my love for those who are outside of Christ?
